"Remember When . . ."

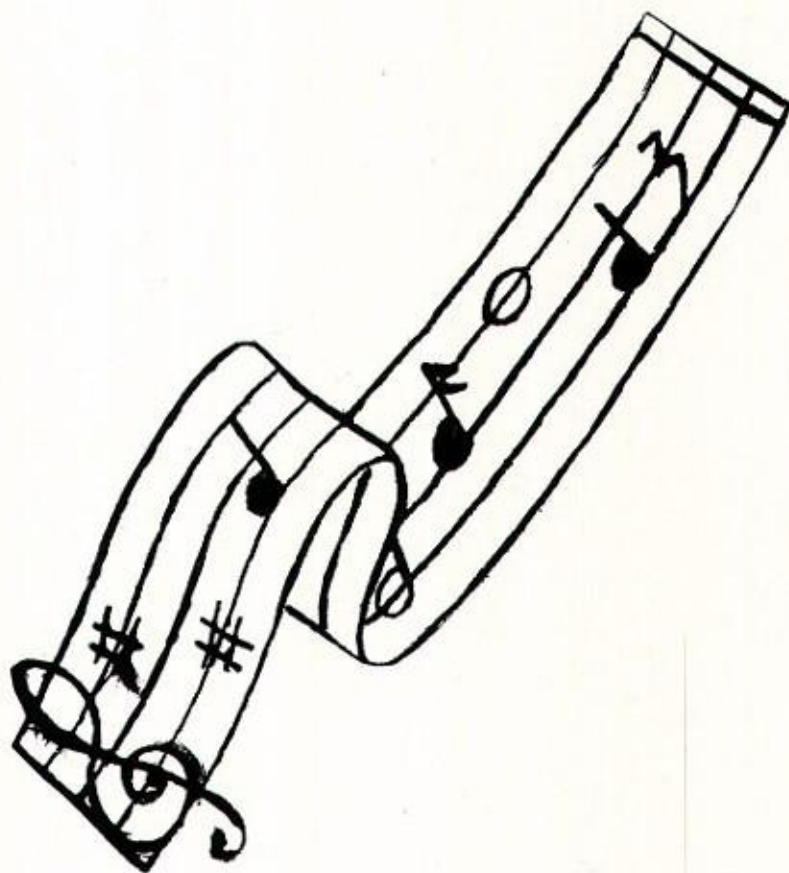

How often have we heard these words?

"Remember when we made that trip up to the lake?" or, "Remember when I first came to Greenhill?"

Memories are precious possessions. They have to be nurtured and treasured to receive their full wealth; but even so they become tired and seem to fade away. Then we meet a friend of times past and we begin to talk and remember. Those old memories come back seemingly refreshed after their rest. We find that all the bad seems to be far in the background, and only those things most pleasant remain.

We, the annual staff of 1958, hope that this yearbook may be that friend to bring back those wonderful memories of your days spent at Greenhill.

DEDICATION

We, the Greenhill Senior Class of 1958, take great pleasure in dedicating this annual to a most deserving member of the faculty.

Not only has she been an excellent language teacher and sponsor of the Cavalcade, but she is, also, a devoted and thoughtful friend to the entire student body.

Therefore, it is with heartfelt appreciation that we dedicate the 1958 Cavalcade to Mrs. Frances H. Baldy.

On behalf of the Board of Governors it affords me pleasure at this time to give a message to the graduating class, to the student body and to the faculty.

To the graduate - may we congratulate you on your accomplishments, on your wonderful spirit, and for your outstanding contribution to the betterment of our fine school. May we wish for you, as you begin your college careers, continued success, and may you always conduct yourselves along the very high standards you have at Greenhill.

To the rest of the student body - we extend our thanks for your wonderful contribution to the betterment of our school, and hope you will continue to do your best in all things, and continue to have the fine school spirit that you have shown, and throughout the rest of your careers will continue to try to improve yourselves and thereby make Greenhill a better school.

To the faculty - our deepest thanks and appreciation to you for the inspiration you have given your pupils, and the devotion to your jobs that has inspired us all to want to do greater things for Greenhill School.

Pat Henry, Jr., Chairman
Board of Governors

It is with a deep sense of pride that we complete another year at Greenhill. The cooperation of the faculty and student body has resulted in the most successful year in our school's history. It is my sincere desire that this experience will be the beginning of the improvement in your lives which must, of necessity, take place if you are to be citizens that contribute to community, state, or nation.

JOYSAN BEENE

Joysan Beene is the "senior" Senior of Greenhill, since she has attended for the past five years. At school Joysan's pleasing and witty personality has added to the spirit of the school. She is well known to her fellow students as "the girl who can talk all of her teachers (except Mrs. Conlee) out of pop tests and homework."

Although she can act and sing exceptionally well, her favorite pastime is sleeping. Joysan enjoys the languages also, having taken both French and Spanish.

Joysan is planning to enter Howard Payne College in Brownwood, Texas, after graduation. There she will major in speech and drama. We are sure that Joysan will achieve success in her college work as well as her goal in later life.

MARY ALEVA COX

Mary Aleva Cox, better known to her many friends at Greenhill as "Mollie," came laughingly through the portals of Greenhill in the fall of '56 from Woodrow Wilson. Because of her carefree and friendly personality, she has become a "favorite" with her classmates. But her friends know, also, that Mollie has a studious attitude that has placed her "tops" with the teachers and kept her at the top of the Honor Roll both her Junior and Senior years.

Mollie's passion for her horse "Christmas" has just recently been replaced by her new yellow Ford that accompanies her everywhere.

The students at Greenhill will be sorry to see this witty senior graduate and leave to attend Rollins College in Florida, but we know that she will be as successful there as she was here.

BURGESS DICKEN

Buzz, the "Roar" of the Senior Class, is truly one of the greatest boys in the history of Greenhill. He came to the school from Highland Park in '55, and since that time has never ceased to amuse everyone. He always seems to have someone's attention, mostly girls, with his crazy cartoons and winning personality.

In spite of his sometimes "maddening" impressions on the faculty, he has gained their affection.

Buzz has had a leading part in all the school activities, being a hard-working football captain, an excellent basketball player, Vice President of the Student Council, and an active member of the Gourmet Club. No one can keep this boy down in a game, and his ability to make humorous the gravest situations will, we know, be of great use to him at Trinity University.

Ellen Harrison came to Greenhill from Highland Park High School at the beginning of her Junior year. She wasted no time in gaining many friends with her sweet disposition and winning personality. Ellen can be identified by her pretty blue Chevy convertible, which she says has been wonderful company since she outgrew her "old green Schwinn."

Ellen enjoys reading so much that in her spare time one can usually find her lounging in the Senior Room with a book.

We at Greenhill wish Ellen success at Trinity University where she plans to major in Interior Decorating.

Janet came to Greenhill in her Junior year from Garland High School. Although she has quite a distance to travel each morning, Janet seems to be the "earlybird" of the Senior Class.

Her cabin at Lake Lavon has been a favorite spot for many of our parties. Thanks a lot, Janet; we will remember the swell times we had there for many years to come.

Janet's sewing talents make us all "green with envy;" we wish that we could have so many pretty clothes. We hope that Janet will do well when she goes to Christian College, where she will major in homemaking.

Lynn is a new addition to Greenhill, coming from Highland Park at the beginning of her Senior year. Her vivacious personality soon made her a well-liked member of the school. She is respected by everyone for her excellent grades, which have won her optional study hall all year. Because of Lynn's delight in chattering, the Seniors have nicknamed her "Miss Talkative."

One of Lynn's major talents is sewing, and she plans to go to Texas Tech to study designing. We all feel that she will be successful.

GEORGE JONES

George entered Greenhill in his Freshman year and quickly became a permanent fixture in the activities and social life of the school.

George played a big role in the school's sports program, lettering for three years and being a captain of the football team for two years. George's devotion to his drums will in all probability develop into a distinguished career in the musical field.

Everyone at Greenhill will miss George and his silly antics that keep everybody happy and laughing. To George, we wish all the best luck in his work at North Texas State College.

Linda came from Thomas Jefferson to Greenhill in her Junior year, and has made a fine addition to the student body. She has been active in all the school activities, a member of the Gourmet Club, a member of the Annual Staff, and co-chairman of the Assembly Devotional Committee.

In her spare time she has taken part in Little Theater work and has taken turns at dancing and singing. Having traveled a lot, she is a good conversationalist and often "spouts" foreign phrases to her friends in the Senior Room.

Linda plans to attend Emerson College in Boston where she will major in theater arts. We all wish her the best of luck in her career, and hope we will see her in "movies" someday.

Scott "Maverick" is Greenhill's best known cowboy. He entered the school in the spring of '56. His interest in all things western led Scott to forsake his "gringo ways" for Spanish.

He has been a tremendous asset to the football team, and he served as co-captain for two seasons. We know that the Fishing Club will miss Scott's dry humor on their trips to the Coast.

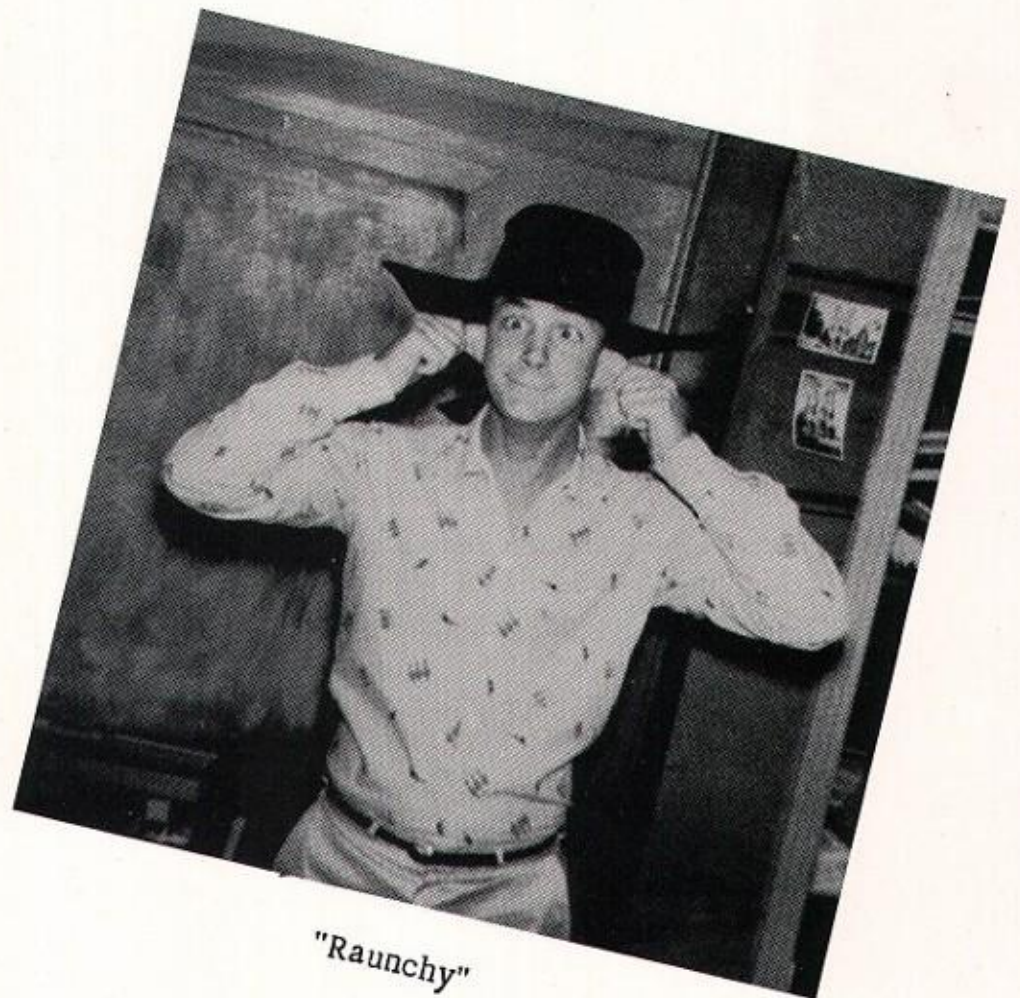

Scott will go to Texas University, where his genial personality will surely win him a place in the hearts of his classmates.

Ronnie plans to enter Texas Tech and study electrical engineering, but also intends to leave time for his favorite sport, football. Because of his diligence and his warm personality, we are assured that he will build his future successfully.

Marshall came to Greenhill in his Senior year, and although he has been with us only a short time, his ready wit has added an extra sparkle to school life.

Most of his spare time is devoted to the art of playing his guitar and to working on his shiny blue Cadillac. We often wonder how Marshall finds time to keep his high grades and spend so much time with his girls.

Melinda, quiet as a mouse, has managed in her own shy little way to win the love and respect of everyone during her two years at Greenhill. A high spot in the day for all of us is a glimpse of her angelic smile. She is a walking advertisement for all of the exclusive dress shops of Dallas.

Melinda is of a retiring and studious disposition, rarely seen without the congenial company of a book.

Craft, after a two year absence, re-entered Greenhill in 1955 from Highland Park High School. Being a studious and calm person, he is perhaps the only boy in the '58 class who has tried to stay clear of trouble.

'Tiger' Thompson played football for the Hornets for the first time this year. Opponents' coaches always said, "Who was that number 61 out there? He slowed us down quite a bit." That was our boy, "Tiger."

Greenhill wishes Craft a lot of luck in his college education. Good luck, Craftie!

PATRICIA ROSS WOODUL

Pat Woodul, "Miss Greenhill" herself, has entered into everything that has gone on at the school in the three years that she has been here.

Pat is known for being "chief cook" (winner of last year's Gourmet Club Contest), and custodian of the Senior Room, as well as being tops scholastically. She is a hard-working cheerleader, editor of our annual, driver of a car pool, and part of all that goes toward making up our school.

"Patrick," as she often signs her name, has worked so hard with us and for us that she has to bring her own lunch, an ulcer diet, to school. We all hope that this will be cleared up when she enters college next year.

WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1958, Greenhill School, City of Dallas, County of Dallas, State of Texas, in the United States of America, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following items to those who are in the most dire need of our bequests:

We give and bequeath, freely and without hesitation or reservation, to the members of the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, those valuable assets: our influence over members of the faculty, our sometimes uncontrollable wit, and that hallowed sanctuary--the Senior Room.

We also leave to the Junior Class a can of stain and paint remover, which we are sure they will be able to put to good use in the much needed repair of the Senior Room.

To the Sophomore Class we leave our worldliness and our numerous alibis in the hope that the class will put them to uses befitting their worthiness.

To the Freshman Class we leave our ability to forget about those important tests the night before and our shining example of how to disregard the advice of teachers and threats against tardiness.

- ITEM: I, Joysan Beene, leave my ability to talk Mrs. Baldy out of tests to my brother, Benny, who can more than use it.
- ITEM: I, Mollie Cox, leave my "daddy-long-legs" to Marie Stanfield.
- ITEM: I, Buzz Dicken, leave everyone alone, at last.
- ITEM: I, Ellen Harrison, leave my used paper bound books to Nancy Baughman, who can use a new supply.
- ITEM: I, Janet Hogge, leave my old boat motors to anyone who can use them and doesn't mind the loss of a leg or two.
- ITEM: I, Lynn Hutchison, leave my strained vocal chords to Frances Outler, who doesn't really need them.
- ITEM: I, George Jones, leave my perfect attendance record to Dottie Williams.
- ITEM: I, Linda Kamens, leave my ability to arrive at all appointments on time to Kay Killian.
- ITEM: I, Scott Kneese, leave my Colt 45 and my genuine Wyatt Earp hat to the Dallas Historical Society.
- ITEM: I, Ronnie Lowry, leave my way with the women to Tom Martin.
- ITEM: I, Marshall Newcomb, leave my mental abilities to Larry Nichols.
- ITEM: I, Melinda Stewart, leave my "angel smile" to Jay Crisford in hope that he will use it to the best advantage.
- ITEM: I, Craft Thompson, leave my flower garden and my hikes up Flag Pole Hill to Bob Harris.
- ITEM: I, Randy Weyl, leave my muscles to Troy Bateson.
- ITEM: I, Pat Woodul, leave the Senior Room broom to the future janitor of that model of interior decoration.

Finally we do name and appoint as sole executor of this, our last will and testament, Mrs. Baldy.

In witness whereof, we, the Senior Class of 1958, the testators, have set our hand and seal on this the first day of June, 1958

PROPHECY

PARIS--MARCH 1, 1968
VOICE OF TODAY...

LINDA KAMENS, REPORTER, LONDON TIMES

There's one thing wonderful about a job like mine... we really do get around... never a dull moment. When my editor gave me my last assignment, little did I dream that I would just about literally cover the globe; that I would go by plane, train, boat, and oxcart to the far corners of the world.

Last week in Paris I ran into Mrs. Baldy, our language teacher at the old Greenhill School in Dallas. Imagine my surprise to learn that she is now teaching at the Sorbonne. Good old Baldy, she deserves the best.

While we "cafe au lait'd" at a sidewalk cafe, we jabbered constantly about the happenings of the past ten years. I had these all "rolled up" in my notes of LIFE IN AMERICA columns, which I was just completing for the London Times. There were incidents about hundreds of people in my columns, of course, but she thumbed anxiously through for names from the old Cavalcade.

It was no surprise to her to learn that Mollie Cox is considered the outstanding fashion model in New York, and that her private secretary had told me that she was booked for six months in advance. It's a wide, wide world for a slim, slim girl.

Proud owners of BUZZ-ROD, INC. are Buzz Dicken and Ronnie Lowry. They appear in the 1968 WHO'S WHO as the competition that caused the fall of Walt Disney's empire. Handsome Ronnie and dashing Buzz are famed for their unique sound effects... and such clever animation!!

Here's a tasty morsel - Sunny California is now being enjoyed by the new Air Force wife, Mrs. Mary Lindsey Hutchison Flower. While her husband, now a top General, is attending to his S.A.C. duties, she lounges on the beach with her ten curly-headed children.

He says he's lonely away from Dallas, but Craft Thompson seemed a "natural" in Hollywood. I saw him at the Brown Derby surrounded by drooling, devastating blondes, and he told me that the hardest thing he had to do was to say "no" instead of "I do."

Well, oh well, hasn't Randy Weyl done well for himself? Coach Weyl is now considering which of the offers made to him by Oklahoma and Greenhill School for Boys and Girls to accept. As both are his alma maters, it is hard for him to decide which of these two great football teams merit his direction.

When we got this far in our reminiscing, Mrs. Baldy had a surprise for me. She had been a week-end visitor at the Riviera chateau of the Prince and Princess Mocambo. She is the former Miss America, Ellen Harrison. "Good casting," she said... and she should know.

Once in a while, a new star explodes on the cinema screen. Now it is Scott Kneese, the leading man in a revival of an old television character... Maverick, I believe.

When Joysan Beene comes over to Paris next week, the three of us plan to have a get-together. We shall be so anxious to hear about her debut as Madame Butterfly. She will rest a while before appearing at LaScala. Elsa Maxwell told me that her visit here is eagerly awaited by the international set.

And now, Pat Woodul has reached her goal, at last. She has just dedicated the building she designed in Boston. Aw shucks, Mrs. Baldy knew about that, too, for it is the only one of its kind in the world... a thirty story bamboo Teahouse... open only in August.

Although the famed Texas oil industry dropped to insignificance in '58, the great oil magnet of today, Marshall Newcomb, Jr., with his clever manipulations brought the industry back to its home state.

Here is a real Texas scoop: It seems that news hasn't reached Paris yet that Melinda Stewart has been made principal of a Dallas charm school of high merit. The name of the school? "Cool Charm."

What goes on in Texas wouldn't be complete for us without chatter about Janet Hogge. She and her husband have a deluxe fishing lodge that is a haven for the people who make the news. . . actors, writers, politicians, and even tired reporters. I must remember to make my reservation.)

Speaking of people in "show biz," I hear success doesn't come easy in the record business, but George Jones cabled me that after the long pull he has just received his Gold Record for the million selling platter of "Taboo." I'll wager this talented fellow will soon be eating from gold platters.

Mrs. Baldy and I considered this a wonderful treat . . . our meeting . . . our reminiscing. We hated to end our visit, but the wee morning hours were slipping by. Talking about the whole successful class of '58 made us want to see them. We both promised that we would try to bring them together some time soon . . . somewhere. Then we would talk, we would laugh, we would hope . . .

Heard in the Senior Room

Ronnie - "I'm a mental giant."

Lynn - "Yakety-yak-yak-yak."

Mollie - "Buzz, you're a roar; Ronnie, you're hateful."

Buzz - "None of your lip."

Pat - "Myself ! !"

George - "Careful of my wrist, boys, remember the drums."

Scott - "DRAW ! I'm the fastest gun alive."

Randy - "Hey, chick."

Joysan - "Please, not another test today."

Linda - "I'm so-o-o-o tired !"

Melinda - "Oh please, don't take my picture."

Janet - "I had MORE fun on my date last night."

Craft - "Anybody for a hike? The butterflies are beautiful."

Marshall - "Lefty, Scarr . . ."

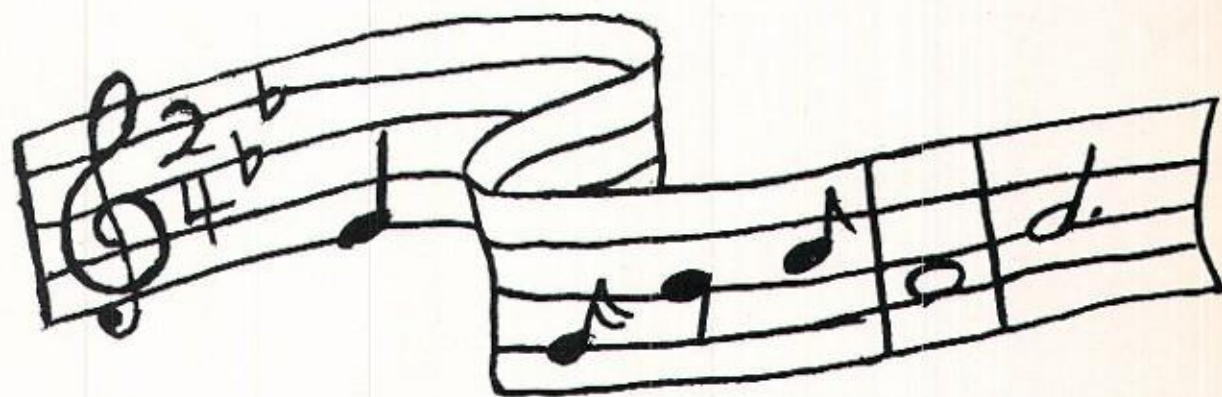

Ellen - "I don't know."

FISHING CLUB

The Greenhill Fishing Club, under the leadership of Mr. Hunt, had another successful year. During the Thanksgiving holidays, Mr. Hunt with seven boys took off for the coast on a four-day trip. It was so successful that in February another trip with four boys was planned. On the second trip there was rain the first day, but the second was beautiful and several nice fish were caught.

Other small trips to nearby lakes were made by the club and many fish were caught.

THE CAVALCADERS

Standing: Janet Hogge, Melinda Wood, Joysan Beene, Lynne Hutchison, Melinda Stewart, Molly Fulton, Karen Ohlweiler, Mollie Cox, Vickie Davis, Linda Kamens, Marie Stanfield, Penny Ray, Mrs. Conlee.
Seated: Vivian McClanahan, Margie Russell, Dottie Williams, Marilou Leftwich, Ellen Harrison.

The Cavalcadors, more commonly known as the Girls' Club, is an organization composed of Upper School girls interested in furthering the goodwill which pervades the Greenhill atmosphere.

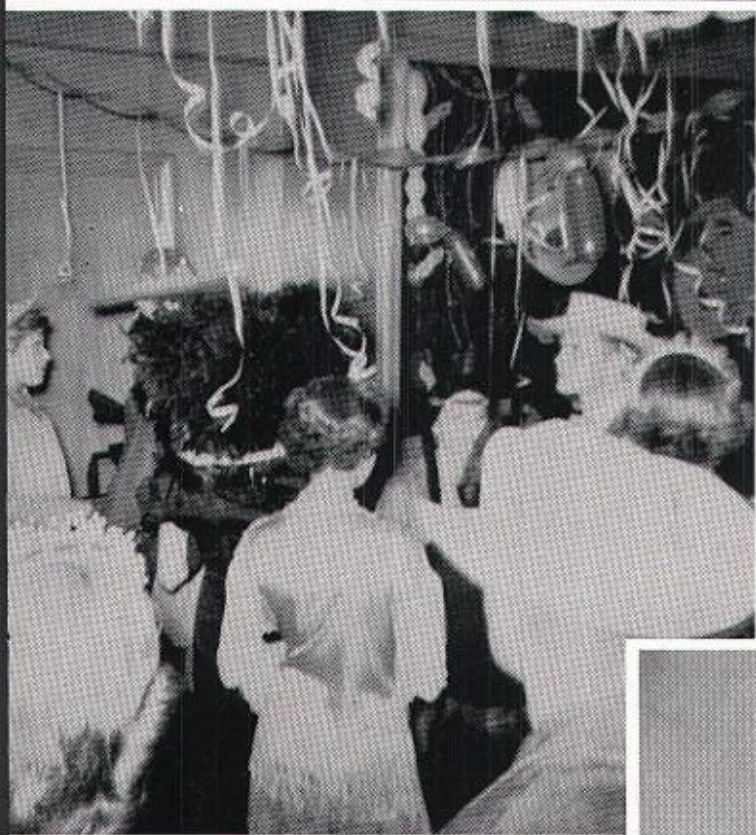

Among the projects for the year have been sales of homemade candy to raise money to send CARE packages abroad and extensive work for the Junior Red Cross.

1957 Spring Trip

The 1957 Spring Trip was a tremendous success. Everyone looked forward to it with anticipation.

We toured the capital, Baton Rouge, and the University of Louisiana, as well as other points of interest en route to New Orleans. In the famous old city, we visited the well-known French Quarter, Lake Pontchartrain, Audubon Park, and took a ride on the river boat down the Mississippi.

To sum it all up, this was a vacation we will all remember!

The 1957 Gourmet Contest

"Yum-Yum"

On the evening of the twenty-first of March a riot of excitement reigned as the participants of the Annual Junior Gourmet Contest brought their exotic dishes to the gaily decorated auditorium hoping to win the coveted prize of a trip to Hollywood! Among the many entrants was a peacock handsomely bedecked in all its plumage. Excitement was rampant as the judges carefully examined each dish not only for eye-appeal, but for unusual taste and texture. Finally six contestants were chosen: Bob Becker, Mollie Cox, Charles Freeman, Larry Nichols who, although ill, had prepared his entry and sent it by Mrs. Nichols, Helen Smith, Pat Woodul - each of whom received a ceramic coffee warmer.

These semifinalists appeared on Mr. David Wade's Saturday evening Gourmet Program in order to determine the final winners of the Grand Prize. At assembly time on April 10, the winners were announced. Pat Woodul and Larry Nichols were the fortunate two who on April 21 set out for a week of fun and excitement, as well as education, with Mr. and Mrs. Wade in Hollywood.

THE JUNIOR GOURMET CLUB

The Junior Gourmet Club, organized in 1954 and sponsored by Mrs. Conlee and Mr. David Wade, has become a very important part of the school life.

Among the many activities of the year were a western party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schultz, dinners at restaurants noted for their fine foods, and a clinic designed to further the knowledge of both American and foreign cookery. Members of the club appeared frequently on Mr. Wade's television program, "The Gourmet," each preparing his favorite food.

The highlight of the year is an annual contest which takes place in March or April every year. All members are urged to participate in preparing gourmet recipes. The winners of this contest are rewarded with a trip to Hollywood with Mr. and Mrs. Wade.

LINE-UP

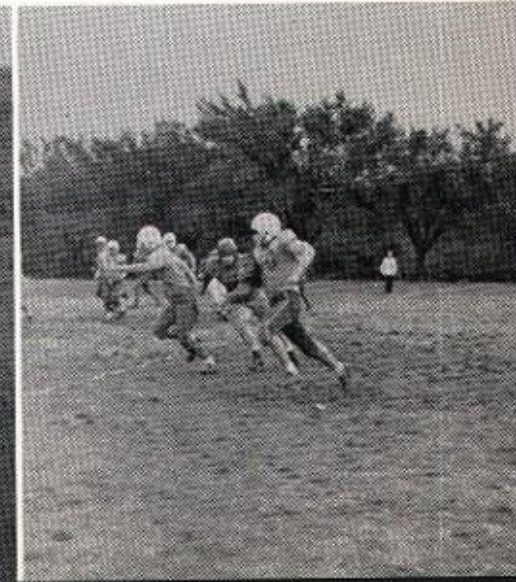

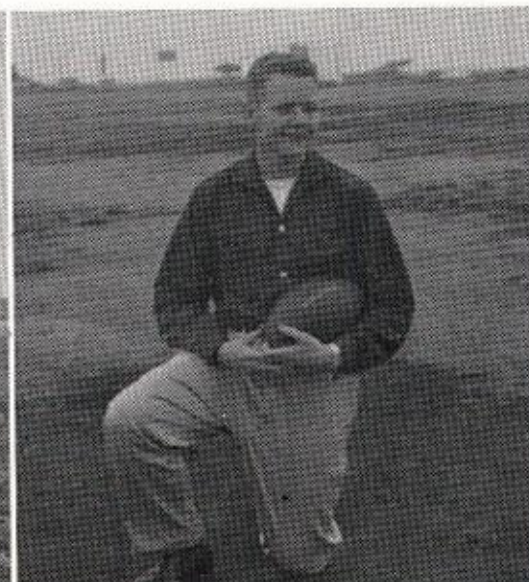

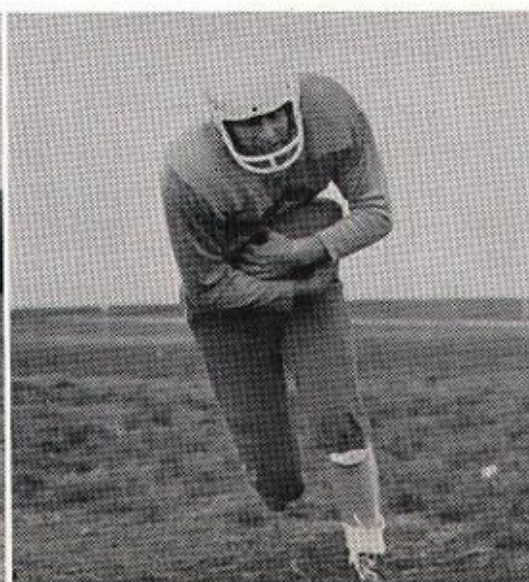

With high hopes for the coming season two weeks before the beginning of school nineteen boys reported for practice. In the opening game with Godley on September the thirteenth, Greenhill lost several boys for the season due to injuries. All through the season, however, Greenhill received many praises from opposing coaches and teams on the spirit and good sportsmanship displayed on the field. Our boys played hard in every game and even though the other teams won on points, many were outplayed by the Greenhill Eleven.

The Seventh Grade football team, coached by Mr. Phillips, had a successful year both in winning games and in having fun. The boys played good hard football; their sense of sportsmanship and fair play won the respect and admiration of all their opponents.
